Noise Diary

In order for us to deal effectively with any noise complaint, even if it does not result in legal proceedings, it is essential to have accurate detailed information recorded for at least one month. It is important that this noise diary contain as much detailed information as possible. Please use as much space as you need on the diary or even continue on another sheet.

Once completed, signed and dated, the Noise Diary should be returned to the Town of Lincoln for the By-law Officer investigation to begin.

If you have any difficulties, please do not hesitate to contact the Town Office at 905-563-8205.
